

The Do Not Call law has been a wonderful addition for NJ residents. It protects our privacy, our family time and at times our sanity!! It has been great to be free of those annoying and unwanted calls. Vendors need to be more creative in finding ways to boost their business. Unwanted calls make me earmark those businesses that I would be least likely call for service or products.